

Report about Your Stay Abroad Consent Form

Your report can help many other students to plan a stay abroad or find the courage to go to new countries. We would therefore be very grateful if we could publish your experience report on the website of the International Office.

First Name / Last Name

My report may be published on the Internet.
Your last name and the host organization's contact information will be removed first.

My report may be published on the Internet with the following changes:

My first name should also be removed (the report will be uploaded as "anonymous").

For internships: The name and logo of the company should be removed.

Other: -----

Important note on photos:

Please only use photos that you have taken yourself (otherwise, please do NOT upload any photos to the relevant sections of the experience report).

If people are depicted in the photos, you must have their consent for publication. If not, please make the people unrecognizable beforehand.

With my signature, I confirm that I have written this experience report myself and that I hold the full rights of use—in particular for texts, photos, graphics, drawings, or other copyrighted materials—and that I may transfer these rights of use to TU Dortmund University's International Office for publication for informational purposes for other students, in particular on the International Office's website.

I am aware that the reports will be accessible worldwide when published on the Internet. The further use of the reports by third parties cannot therefore be generally excluded.

This declaration of consent is valid for an indefinite period from the date of signature. I am aware that I can revoke this declaration of consent at any time with future effect by sending an e-mail to going-abroad@tu-dortmund.de. Revocation will result in the published report being removed from the website within seven days.

May report may not be published on the Internet.
